BUTLER AVENUE ONE OF EXCELLENT CHANGES

Regarding the improvement of Butler avenue, from Twenty-fifth to Twenty-sixth streets, between Adams and Jefferson, which is part of Mayor Hey-wood's black-and-red paving program, J. C. Nye, one of the owners of the abutting property, said that, in his opinion, the improvement was acceptable to the property owners, but he expressed a hope the mayor would improve the plan by including the proposed feature of creating in the block a circle large enough to enable automobiles to turn around without backing up and going through dangerous and inconvenient gyrations.

Mr. Nye said the Stevens estate representatives had offered to donate part of the ground necessary for the circle, large enough to provide an unique and attractive parking in the center. There was some objection, he said, on the part of Preston A. Blair, one of the property owners, but he believed Mr.
Blair would co-operate after considering the advantages of the proposed circle.

Improvement Desirable.
This is a small but important part of paving district No. 124. The principal property owners are well able to afford the improvement, it is said, the principal ones being Fred J. Klesel, J. C. Nye, Preston A. Blair, John Hammer, Don Maguire, George T. Terry, two well-to-do non-residents, one of whom is represented by Don Maguire, and the Crittenton Home. The latter is the well known benevolent institution whose share in this improvement will probably be remitted, it is said, by some of the big-hearted property owners named above.

The Standard has not conferred with anyone except Mr. Nye regarding the proposed improvement, but it was evident from what he said that the proposed improvement is excellent in design and is approved by the owners of abutting property, but that it would be far more desirable, from a standpoint of utility and beauty, in Mr.
Nye's opinion, if the proposed circle were included in the plans.

To Enhance Values.
The plans call for a substantial concrete wall at the south end of the avenue to prevent erosion, concrete sidewalks, with parkways on each side, and terrace steps for the ascent to the street.

City Engineer Joseph M. Tracy has completed a drawing of the proposed improvement, showing the attractive proposed south elevation and a perspective of Butler avenue above the top of the stairway.

San Francisco has many improvements of this kind, which enhance the value of the abutting property and the beauty and utility of the entire block.
This is one small part of Mayor Heywood's black-and-red paving program which is regarded as eminently desirable and in every way fair and reasonable.

NEGROES CARVE EACH OTHER IN ROOMING HOUSE

Lorine Griffin and James Pryor, negroes, were badly carved up last night by a third negro, thought to be William Massa, a former friend of the woman. The cutting was done with a butcher knife of razor sharpness and with a blade twelve inches long, and the victims were taken from the Ark rooming house, 2624 Wall avenue, to the Dees hospital by the police. Today, they were reported to be out of danger and getting along as well as could be expected.

The first report of the affray was telephoned to police headquarters at 7:45 o'clock and Patrolman A. B. Jensen and John Hutchins immediately went to the scene. They found the Griffin woman and Pryor in a south room of the "Ark," unconscious and bleeding profusely from numerous wounds in the face, neck, arms and upper part of the body. The ambulance arrived at the place shortly afterward, with Sergeant T. H. Blackburn in charge, and the negroes were taken to the hospital and given surgical attention.

A thorough investigation of the affair was made and the officers learned from other negroes residing in the house that they had heard sounds of a quarrel and then the screams of a woman. Following quickly upon these sounds, the falling of a body was heard and then, they said, Massa was seen to leave the room and dash out of the house.

The Griffin woman was in the city jail on charge of vagrancy, several days ago, and at that time she was visited by Massa. The negro at first said he was her brother, but later declared he was only a friend and desired to help her gain her freedom.

MRS. CULLEN'S DEATH CAUSED BY A FALL INTO CELLAR

The body of Mrs. J. J. Cullen arrived this morning from Elko at 6 o'clock. Services are to be held at the Kirkendall chapel at 1:30 p. m.
Saturday. Burial will be in Mountain View cemetery.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Cullen, while visiting a neighbor in Elko, stepped on a cellar door, which gave way. The fall caused her death. She was expecting to give birth to a child in a few months. This is the second tragic death in the family within two months, a young son having accidentally shot himself.

The following obituary appears in the Elko Independent:

Lizzie Morrison Cullen was a native of the Comstock, having been born in Virginia City thirty-seven years ago.
There she spent her childhood, and her education was received in the public schools of that place. Soon after graduating from high school she accepted a position as school teacher at Humboldt house, and there she was wondered and won by J. J. Cullen. Six children came to bless the union, two of whom have passed away. About five years ago the only daughter died in Wells, and on the 5th of last February one of the boys, Kenneth, a splendid youth, accidentally killed himself with a .22 caliber rifle. This accident was a terrible shock to his mother, and she never became reconciled to his loss.

The family has had more than its share of grief in the past few months.
Besides the sad accident to Kenneth, Mrs. Cullen lost a brother, Walter Morrison, about two months ago. Her brother, Captain Morrison, a Spanish-American war veteran, died several years ago, and the only one that is now left of her family is a brother, Chancey Morrison, of Reno, who arrived from that place this morning.
Mrs. Cullen was recently obliged to submit to an operation for goiter, from the effect of which she had hardly recovered.

Four young boys, the youngest of whom is but 4 years old, a disconso-late husband and a brother are left to mourn her.

Mrs. Cullen was one of those sweet Christian mothers whose heart and soul were wrapped up in her family and her home.

'THE BLUE PARADISE' HAS BEAUTIFUL MUSIC

One of the most tuneful musical numbers of "The Blue Paradise," the musical comedy which the Messrs. Shubert will offer at the Orpheum Theater Monday night, March 26, for an engagement of one night, is "Auf Wie-dersehen," which means in English, "Till we meet again."

This is sung at the end of the prologue by Rudolph and Mizzi, the flower girl, and is the theme of the operaetta. It is one of the most popular numbers to have been heard in New York for a long time, and is written in the true Viennese style, and to the jaded theater-goers, who must listen to ragtime, it comes as a delicious relief. It is said that all of the numbers in "The Blue Paradise" are charming and worthy from a musical viewpoint. The Messrs. Shubert promise a first-class cast for "The Blue Paradise," many of whom appeared in the original Casino production. The company includes John E. Young, Shep Camp, Robert G. Pittard, Fred Horton, George Everett, Sam Hens, Madeline Nash, Helen Eley and Louise Kelley.—Ad-

Theatres

AT THE ORPHEUM
There's a big elephant at the Orpheum theatre this week who betrays almost human intelligence by obeying numerous commands of his trainer and bows with the grace of a dancing master. The pachyderm is rather large to be called "cute," yet that is what many of the girls in yesterday's audience declared him to be, and the animal appeared to enjoy the sensation he was causing. The elephant is but one of the featured members of Gruber's Animal Circus, which headlines the Pantages vaudeville program this week at the Goss playhouse.

Or second, or, perhaps, equal interest on the program is the dramatic playlet, "Flags," presented by Payne, Gordon and company. This is of particular moment in consideration of affairs between the United States and Germany, and the German character is shown to be admirable. The characters in the playlet are two elderly German and French expatriates and a young girl whom they adopted in infancy. The girl is represented on the program as the "and company," and she proved last night to be a thoroughly capable actress and reader.
The German and Frenchman, now naturalized Americans, are veterans of the war of 1870. They came to America at the close of the war, became friends under free skies and, at the opening of the play, had lived in happy partnership for nearly twenty years.
The cause of the dramatic action is the present war. There is humor and pathos in the play and the climax is deeply impressive.

Next on the scale of merit is a curtain raising entertainment by Gaston Palmer. The program says he is the man who made juggling an art and this is almost believable.

There's a real "cute" person on the bill in the form of Katherine Melville, who does an enjoyable act with Harold of the same name. She displays a lyric soprano voice of much tonal appeal in a solo and several duets, and also dances neatly. Harold also has a good voice and matches up well in other ways with his dainty partner.

Wilson Brothers are back again with their funny dialogue.
Jackson and McLaren, world champion axmen, are also playing a return engagement.

EMPRESS AT PALACE

Five Members in Bed With Measles—All Outside Communication Cut Off.

TSARKOE-SELO, Russia, March 22, via London, March 22, 12:45 p. m.— On his arrival here today in the custody of four members of the duma, Nicholas Romanoff, the deposed emperor, was turned over immediately to the Tsarkoe-Selo commander and taken to the Alexandrovsky palace, where the former Empress Alexandra already was interned. The special train carrying the former ruler arrived at 1:30 o'clock on the branch line outside Alexandrovsky Park. On leaving the train Nicholas entered an automobile accompanied by his adjutant, Prince Dolgoroukoff, the only courier of the first rank who accompanied him, and by the four duma commissioners. They were driven to the palace. Nicholas was met at the door in the left wing of the palace by Count Benckhendorff, who was his marshal of the court and is now under arrest. The former ruler held himself erect, looking calm and indifferent, although he stepped from the automobile with nervous haste. A battalion of the First rifle guard regiment was at the railroad depot.

Emperor Is Handed Over.

The commander at Tsarkoe-Selo is Colonel Kobulinsky, formerly commander of the Petrogradsky regiment, stationed in peace time at Warsaw. To him the duma commissioners announced:

"Our mission of handing over the emperor is finished. We now go to Petrograd to announce this fact to the duma."

The correspondent drove to the old Tsarkoe-Selo palace, which is deserted and without guards, and then to the new palace, where the former imperial family is interned. The palace lies in a large park, which is surrounded by a plain, spiked fence five feet high coated with silver paint. Within the park, over the broad expanse of snow, not a single person was visible. Apparently there were no guards within the park, but outside the fence, every fifty yards along the roadway were double sentries from the Petrogradsky regiment in long blue coats, with fixed bayonet.

Staff Officers' Domicile.

Near the east wing of the palace is a detached building which formerly served as the kitchen. It is now occupied by the staff officer in command of the troops guarding Nicholas. Further on is the chief part of the palace, a long two-story building of pale yellow stucco with white Corinthian columns reaching to the roof and two vast projecting side wings. The palace when seen through a blinding snowstorm makes a desolate and unattractive appearance.

Concerning Alexandra and other members of the family the following information was given. All the five children are in bed with the measles, for which reason Alexandra has not been outside the palace walls for two days. So far as is known, no order has been issued preventing her from walking about the grounds. She has been forbidden to use the telephone and telegraph or have any communication with the outside world. This morning she requested permission to telephone Princess Barotoff, a friend, asking as to her health. The request was refused.

Nicholas Adherents Arrested.

At the Nicholas gymnasium, a big building near the city hall, two hundred adherents and courtiers of the former emperor are under arrest.
In a big room on the first floor the correspondent found seventy peroners With Guns.

OTHER ENGAGEMENTS

Attacks on Germans by Strong Forces Between Oise and Aisne Repulsed.

BERLIN, March 22. (Wireless to Saville).—Heavy losses were inflicted by the Germans yesterday upon French troops who had crossed the Somme-Croizat canal, in the vicinity of St. Simon, army headquarters announced today. The French were repulsed and 230 prisoners and several machine guns were taken.

Engagements developed last night between the Oise and the Aisne, west and south of Margival, in which attacks by strong forces of French troops were repulsed with heavy losses.

The statement reads:
"In connection with several advances of our own and of hostile reconnoitering detachments the artillery activity in the coast, Flanders and Arras sectors, temporarily increased.
A number of prisoners remained in our hands."

"French troops which on both sides of St. Simon had crossed the Somme-Croizat canal were repulsed by an attack against and beyond those sectors.
The enemy suffered sanguinary losses and lost 230 prisoners as well as several machine guns and carts."

"Between the Oise and the Aisne during the evening hours engagements developed west and south of Margi-val. Attacks by strong French forces were repulsed with heavy losses."

"Our artillery outside this field of engagement also found favorable marks in troops assembling and on the move."

"In the forest of Laville-Aux-Bois a French attack which was launched after strong fire failed. Near Watron-ville, on the plains of the Woivre, an enterprise conducted by us resulted in twelve prisoners and two machine being brought in."

KAISER SUFFERS A NERVOUS COLLAPSE

LONDON, March 22, 2:28 p. m.— Private messages have reached The Hague that Emperor William is suffering from a severe nervous breakdown, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from The Hague reports. The emperor's physicians are said to have ordered him to take the cure at Homburg.

sons in civilian dress, formerly palace spies and provocative agents. Here also were four Russian officers with German names who had been arrested on suspicion of having sent communications from the former empress to Berlin. In a neighboring room sat the director of the Tsarskoe lyceum school, who was a general in the army and a close friend of Rasputin, as well as a reactionary member of the district court.

On the second floor in a separate room Prince Putiatin is held. Prince Putiatin was one of reactionary Russia's most powerful men. He was formerly private secretary to the emperor and in recent years director of the palace.

Outside of Putiatin's room three members of the civil militia armed with bayonets, are on guard. The prisoners are well treated and the corridors are crowded with children waiting to see their parents.

GEORGE F. FISHER IS GIVEN SUSPENDED SENTENCE

George F. Fisher, after having been held in custody since January 29, was brought to trial in the municipal court this morning on a charge of disturbing the peace. He was found guilty, but the judge displayed a lenient spirit, in view of the man's long imprisonment and extenuating circumstances that had arisen in his case since his arrest, and gave him a 150-day suspended sentence.

Fisher's case is one that has puzzled the authorities for several months as his actions have not appeared, on different occasions, to be those of a rational man. On January 29 he created a disturbance at the home of his parents on West Seventeenth street, then barricaded himself in the house and defied the officers for several hours with a shotgun. He was finally persuaded to give himself up and since that time definite court action in his case was deferred several times.

Walter Wenler and Jack Sharrock, arrested yesterday for drunkenness, each forfeited $5 bail. S. H. Thorgood and B. Griffin were found guilty of drunkenness and sentenced to serve five days in jail.

MEAT RATION INCREASED.
AMSTERDAM, March 22, via London, 1:30 p. m.—The Weser Zeitung of Bremen says the potato ration will be continued at five pounds weekly and the meat ration will be increased by 250 grams weekly. It is announced, adds the dispatch, that the curtailment in the use of wheat is necessary to insure the present stocks lasting until next harvest.

BREAD RATION REDUCED.
AMSTERDAM, March 22.—The bread ration in Germany will be diminished one-fourth beginning April 15, owing to the scarcity of wheat, according to a dispatch from Berlin in the Weser Zeitung of Bremen.
